CHARLES-TOWN: Printed by PETER TIMOTHY, Printer to the Honourable the COMMONS HOUSE of ASSEMBLY, at his Office on the BAY, near the Exchange.

LOWER-ELBE, (Germany) JANUARY 13.

AN insurrection in Ruſſia is at preſent the topic of every converſation. It ſeems to have happened in the moſt critical Time, when freſh troops were greatly wanted; for by this unhappy event they are not only diſabled from raiſing any new troops, but have been obliged to recal many regiments that were upon their march to Moldavia; and the troops which were cantoned about Warſaw, have received ſudden orders to march to Peterſburgh. It is ſuſpected that many of the principal men in the empire will lay hold of this opportunity, and that a total revolution will be the conſequence of it. In the mean time couriers to Vienna, Berlin, and Copenhagen, from Peterſburgh, are more frequent than ever; and the current reports are very diſagreeable.

LONDON, JANUARY 13.

Six ſhips, from 400 to 500 tons each, are fitting out at Portſmouth, for the purpoſe of importing timber from America, for the uſe of his Majeſty's dock-yards.

Extract of a letter from Inverneſs, dated Dec. 30.

"The emigration of the inhabitants of this part of Scotland is very alarming; but conſidering the ſituation of things in this country, it is not to be wondered at. The following reaſons are aſſigned for it:

"The tyrannical, oppreſſive, and impolitic conduct of the landholders in this country, hath at laſt driven the labouring poor to deſpair. Nothing is now ſeen among that claſs of men but beggary and ruin. Theſe many years paſt proviſions have been ſo dear, that even when work was got, the labourer could ſcarcely earn bread for his family. What can he do now, when manufactures are ſo low, but fly from a country where want and miſery are his only portion? He hath no alternative, but to ſtarve, or emigrate.

"The following are the motives given for emigration to North-America by a body of Highlanders, who embarked laſt ſummer for that part of the Britiſh empire:

"1. The price of land is ſo low in ſome of the Britiſh colonies, that forty or fifty pounds will purchaſe as much ground there, as one thouſand in this country.

"2. There are few or no taxes at preſent in the colonies, moſt of their public debt being paid off ſince the laſt peace.

"3. The climate in general is very healthy, and proviſions of all kinds are extraordinary good, and ſo cheap, that a ſhilling will go as far in America, as four ſhillings in Scotland.

"4. The price of labour (from the ſcarcity of hands, and great plenty of land) is high in the colonies: A day labourer can gain there thrice the wages he can in this country.

"4. There are no beggars in North-America, the poor, when they appear, are amply provided for.

"Laſtly, There are no titled proud Lords, to tyrannize over the lower ſort of people, men there being upon a level, and more valued, in proportion to their abilities, than they are in Scotland."

JANUARY 22.

A correſpondent ſays, the celebrated Junius is at laſt diſcovered to be the Rev. Philip R——gen. He was originally a great acquaintance of Mr. Horne, and a cotemporary of his at Cambridge. Mr. R——gen was there celebrated above all others for his claſſical abilities. R——gen was in London during the whole time of Junius's publications, for a conſiderable time before, and ever ſince, he has been abroad. He is now reſident at Orleans in France, where he cuts a very conſpicuous appearance, having married a beautiful and accompliſhed young lady, ſiſter of the celebrated Mrs. G——: nor does he make it any ſecret, where he reſides, that he is the author of Junius.

The following illuſtrious perſons are buſily employed in ſtudying the four rules of Arithmetic:

His Majeſty, Addition—to his family;
The Miniſtry, Multiplication—of their party;
The Parliament, Subtraction—from the public purſe;
And the Patriots, Diviſion—among themſelves.

By the accounts from Briſtol of their laſt year's importation of ſugars from the Weſt-Indies, it appears to have been twenty thouſand hogſheads, which is five thouſand more than ever were introduced into that port in any one preceding year.

JANUARY 25.

Letters from Cadiz inform us, that the duties which were laid upon the importation of tobacco from the Engliſh colonies have been lately taken off in all the ports of Spain; a circumſtance uncommonly advantageous to the commerce of Great-Britain.

Two perſons of diſtinction are preparing to ſet off for New-England; a ſloop of war is fitting out on purpoſe to carry them over.

Spirited meaſures are adviſed againſt the Boſtonians, and it is reported that ſome regiments will be ordered out immediately.

It was reported upon 'Change on Saturday, that ſix ſhips of war are ordered for America with all poſſible expedition.

Orders were on Saturday given from the Ordnance Board to prevent the exportation of ſmall arms to America, or to the Weſt-Indies, except on government account; and the commiſſioners at all the out-ports are enjoined to ſee this order complied with.

It is currently reported that the late diſturbances in North-America, reſpecting the Teas, will be taken into conſideration by a great Aſſembly.

A certain noble Lord has given his opinion in council, that the American Tea Act ought to be repealed, in order to prevent any further diſturbance in the colonies.

ST. JAMES'S, JANUARY 25.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Soame Jenyns, Edward Elliot, and Bamber Gaſcoyne, Eſquires, the Hon. Robert Spencer, Eſq; commonly called Lord Robert Spencer, William Joliffe, Whitſhed Keene, Eſqrs. and the Hon. Charles Grenville, Eſq; to be his Majeſty's Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations.

JANUARY 27.

By a private letter juſt received from Paris, we are informed that the French King is ſo ill that his life is deſpaired of.

Mr. Van ſaid in the Houſe of Commons, that great ſums were expended to protect the Boſtonians, &c. who by their conduct did not deſerve protection; that inſtead of keeping troops there at a vaſt expence, we might only ſend them over able officers and teach them how to fight; that they were numerous enough to defend themſelves againſt an enemy, but not ſtrong enough to rebel againſt us.

One of the morning papers ſays, "The cauſe of the late commotions in Ruſſia, is owing to the appearance of the Czarina's huſband, real, or pretended, we know not, as that Monarch was ſaid to be degraded, and died in confinement. The report, however, is credited at the weſt end of the town."

By Capt. Stone, just arrived from Sunbury in Georgia, who left it Yesterday, we learn, that two Upper-Creek Chiefs were then there, with a Quantity of Skins and Horses for Sale; and that twelve principal Headmen of the Nation, with their Attendants, were gone to Savannah with Peace-Talks, utterly disclaiming and disapproving the Outrages committed by some of the Lower-Creeks: But they had not heard of the Murder of the Mad Turkey: However, it was not doubted, from the good Temper of the Nation in general, that all Differences might yet be accommodated, if Fee could be taken and punished.
